FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Water parks offer special season passes until May 31

Enjoy special deals at two Aurora water parks

AURORA – Summer weather and water parks will go even better together for those who take advantage of the Fox Valley Park District’s “Splash into Summer” special that will run during the last week in May.

Beginning Monday (May 24), swimmers who purchase a season pass to the Park District’s two water parks will receive a complimentary, one-day friend pass and a free drawstring bag with their purchase.

A season pass provides unlimited admission all summer and is transferrable between Phillips Park Family Aquatic Center and Splash Country Water Park. Pass holders also receive other privileges, including exclusive entry into either water park each Friday one hour before it opens to the public.

The season pass special is available through May 31. Passes must be purchased at a Park District community center to receive the pass and drawstring bag.

Both water parks open for the season on June 5 and will operate daily from noon to 7 p.m.
